1967
Sights and Insights

a student publication of salem college, winston-salem, north carolina

W. STUART
ALBANY, N. Y.

*freshman you the autumn
you come bearing new gifts whose colors reminisce the old*

you are salem

you are her sun drenched bricks that criss-cross the square

you are the shadows of her stately trees you are the bells too often unheard you are the ivy growing upward . . .

W. H. DAVIS
ARCHD. '01

sophomores you the winter patiently you show your strength as salem tries it

you are her nights of toil and her days of perfection you are her loud cries "we are the mighty . . ."
you are her tears of victory at founder's day or a diploma at graduation you are the letters to little sisters and the christmas serenade to dr. gramley . . .

W. T. A. E.
A. V. 1910

*juniors the spring
from your trials you begin to reap as the bud of beauty opens for you*

you are five courses and three labs a week

you are the quality points and you are the dean's list you are her years of challenge for the struggle you are finally rewarded you are the cycle of the seasons . . .

ST. CLAIR
ARCHDALL

*seniors the summer
you are the fulfillment of her expectations*

you all come bearing gifts together you give

salem you receive

you each and all are salem

walter r. yarbrough

Dedication

strong arms, dirty hands, a green plaid hat, a quick smile, a confident "can do." engineer, architect, electrician, plumber, master improviser, and you name it all rolled into one—a jack of all trades and most of all a warm, wonderful man. you say "how does he do it" when an impossible task is done. he's the "man on the hall," the driver of the blue pick-up, the man who really keeps salem going. with this in mind, and so much more, we dedicate the 1967 edition of sights & insights to our favorite "mr. fixit," mr. walter r. yarbrough.

Administration

do you know... that you are graduating into one of the most promising areas of the nation? A recent urban research study forecasts "a linear city" for the 300 miles stretching through the industrial Carolinas. Here, in the 20,000 square miles served by Duke Power, scores of thriving towns connect busy cities. Research centers, colleges and universities, and hundreds of industries thrive. Here in the Carolinas Crescent, there is real challenge and opportunity. There is a place for you to fill, a job for you to do, in an exciting future that begins —right now.

Take a trip to Toronto. Or Trinidad. Or Thailand.
Almost anywhere you go, you'll find Hanes.

From Zambia to Zanesville, Okinawa to Omaha, wherever you travel you'll find people know and appreciate the fine quality of Hanes products.

And you'll find you can buy Hanes in some of the most remote parts of the world.

But you don't have to travel to faraway places.

Chances are you'll find the Hanes products you need right near home.

Because Hanes is everywhere.

EVERY SPRING

Yes, every spring a student's thoughts will turn to flowers and bees and things . . . and graduation and bees and things . . . and every spring we turn our thoughts to students and yearbooks and things . . . and class pictures and type and things . . . and . . . why go on—the finest yearbooks are produced by Edwards & Broughton, Raleigh.

before you is the spirit of salem - the changes we see and the activities with which we are involved from september to june so look to see gil's alone, and each year there are the "specials" a hearty thanks to the senior members who wrote the book and a grateful smile for bebe anderson whom we borrowed from the archway to verbalize our theme and for suwan jones who pitched in with her contributions when the tight scheduling of march appeared

i also want to thank the ledman girls who racked their brains after 11 pm to identify group pics and professors' first names and then there are those professors who greeted us with a knowing smile when we tried to sneak in late after a long session with peter peter, you all must have met him by now, is our creative genius as far as pictures are concerned this book is yours, salemites and faculty; you are its content

we hope you enjoy it
